Fab Finds

Marc Jacobs has been added to the growing stable of international brands available at menswear boutique, Harrolds. Undeniably one of today's most respected fashion design houses, the label will arrive at Harrolds in September. Highlights of the collection to be available include quality suiting and the use of modern fabrics, such as featherweight nylon or ultra-thin crinkled leather, in other garments. Visit Harrolds at 39 Martin Place, Sydney.

In other menswear news, sophisticated brand Dom Bagnato is celebrating 25 years in the fashion industry. The Italian-inspired, elegant men's suiting label has long held a reputation among many males who prefer quality dressing for every occasion, especially when the spring racing carnival is on the agenda. Visit www.dombagnato.com.au for Sydney store locations.

STYLE BITE

Jump on your bike with Puma and Ducati and look extra cool on the roads. The En Route Ducati, $180, (pictured) is Puma's new moto-lifestyle sneaker for this season. Motivated by ergonomics, the footwear's design elements allow riders a much better connection to their machine, offering the wearer comfort as well as style. Go to eshop.puma.com.au to purchase.
