

3 STAR SCENTS

Savvy marketing ploy or spellbinding scents with classic written all over them? We asked three sniffers to decide whether this latest round of celebrity fragrances has star power

Gwen Stefani L.A.N.B

The spin: A fusion of masculine and feminine, this luscious floral scent bursts with sparkling freshness, then wraps you in the warmth of sensual musk.

The verdict: 'I love this. It reminds me of the fresh scent of jasmine in summer.' Janelle, NSW

M by Mariah Carey

The spin: This scent starts off warm and spicy, before blooming into the tropical scent of Tahitian Tiare and gardenia petals.

The verdict: 'I'm surprised, I hate Mariah's music, but this scent is sexy and smells like summer holidays.' Kelly, ACT

Simply Christina

The spin: Provocative and empowering with top notes of fruit sorbet and lingering notes of musk and vanilla.

The verdict: 'It's strong and sensual. I can definitely smell musk and vanilla. I'd wear this whenever I meant business.' Natalie, WA
