

Look at Moi, say fashion winners

THE Moi Moi girls won the category of Retail/Fashion at the City of Sydney Awards dinner last week at the Doltone House in Sydney.

Co-owners and sisters Lauren Chang, of Drummoyne, and Alana Chang, of Summer Hill, also made the top five finalists out of 260 business for the Business of the Year Award.

"We are absolutely thrilled to have won the award chosen by the judges and as for making the top five, in the overall Business of the Year Award we were over the moon, and it is something we are very proud of," Alana said.
